LAVA LAMP WALLCOVERING – PRISM

Originally titled Swirl, this design began as a woodblock print created by Liesl Monath in the 1950s. Its looping forms capture her fascination with movement and abstraction, echoing the optimism and curiosity of post-war modernism. Printed on a shimmering mica ground with matte 3D digital printing that traces each swirl, Lava Lamp has a tactile presence that shifts beautifully with the light. Available in four colours: golden hour, slate, zephyr and prism.
