Kent Plaid 0125-WP-KENLA-01 Lake

Kent Plaid is part of a single SKU series of unique stripes, checks and plaids. Each design is digitally printed on a wide width textured substrate, enriching the depth of each pattern and allowing for fewer seams once installed. Plaids, while traditional, are reimagined with a contemporary twist. What makes these unique is the scale, colour palette, and choice of substrate.

Kent Plaid features a crisp white faux silk ground accented with primary colours and warm neutrals. This balanced mix of cool and warm tones, in conjunction with modern printing on a traditional ground, makes it a versatile choice for interior applications. The hand-painted elements introduce a soft, organic quality to the geometric shapes, adding depth and texture to the design. Kent Plaid is steeped in tradition but alive with modernity.
